Finally recovered from last year, Officers Friar and Sherrow are back on the job and out on the streets where they can get into all sorts of trouble. It doesn't take long, and soon they are working through personal tragedy, sudden death and a strange pattern of accidents aimed at their policechief that might not be accidents. This time they will move from the highest offices in West Precinct all the way down to the deepest places in the sprawling, teeming dark that is Alaman City at night.
