Author Debbie is at her best entwining the natural world with the ever-so-slightly supernatural. In Her Sister's Lie she allows the reader into the head of more than one narrator, scattering seeds at intervals which germinate oh so slowly until the final uprooting renders you quite speechless.

Her Sister's Lie by Debbie Howells | Waterstones

Her Sister's Lie did get off to a bit of a slow start but not slow enough to make me want to give up turning the pages to see where it would go as I settled into the familiar writing style.
