Just A Girl Who Loves Bristlenose Pleco

If you are the kind of person who loves reading and enjoys filling things out then this 2020 reading log was made for you! Created by a book lover for fellow book lovers, it has been thoughtfully planned to track, review, and reflect on the books you read in 2020. This journal includes space to record up to 100 book reviews. Each page includes a section to list details about the book which will make it easier to remember it later. Next on the page are three spaces to write down favorite quotes and passages. If you need more than three spaces for quotes there is additional room in the back of the journal. Then you will rate the book's characters, theme, plot, writing style, ending, and lastly give it an overall rating and final assessment. It also includes monthly planners where you can list goals, take notes, track progress, and track pages read on a calendar. TBR (To Be Read) list to track books you'd like to read throughout the year, their genre, number of pages, and priority. Series tracker to remember which series you are reading, the author, number of books in the series, and which books you have already read. Simply list the number of the books as you read them so you know where you are in each series. The journal wraps up with a few fun pages where you can reflect on what you read during the year by picking favorites, picking the best book in a variety of categories, and determining which character from a book you read in 2020 best fits a list of superlatives. This journal is the size of a composition notebook (7.44" x 9.69") and it is perfect bound paperback. This same interior is
