Love's Unfading Light

Marrying a stranger to keep the woman's siblings out of an orphanage is one thing, but when more children than expected pour out of the stagecoach, what's a man to do? Nervous about meeting her fiancé for the first time, Ellie Spritzer's lifelong hope of finding love is about to end—or rather, begin. She never imagined her quest for love would take her to the other side of the country with all eight of her siblings in tow, but after her mother dies unexpectedly, what choice does she have? At least the man she's been writing for the past year is still willing to marry her and take in her siblings... or so she thinks until she arrives in the dusty town of Twin Rivers, Texas. Growing up an orphan, Sam Owens never had a place to call home or a family to love. So if his wife-to-be needs to bring three of her siblings with her, he has no complaints about having a ready-made family. But his mail-order-bride doesn't arrive with three. She arrives with eight. Sam can't make himself turn away children in need. But as a beginning rancher, he doesn't have the resources to care for so many people. When sinister forces threaten the things Sam and Ellie both hold dear, can they figure out how to keep their fledgling family together, or will they lose the very things they cherish most? Tomorrow's First Light is the first book in the Texas Promise Series by bestselling Christian romance author Naomi Rawlings. If you like tender marriage-of-convenience stories, you'll love this

“A powerful love story laced with God’s truth.” The historical town of Eagle Harbor awaits readers in book one of the bestselling Eagle Harbor Series. Tressa Danell is finished with men—from the wastrel who left her a widow, to the smelly trapper who keeps proposing, to the banker who wants to repossess her bakery. Every hour is spent working to pay off her late husband’s debt and keep a roof over her son’s head, though it’s doubtful she can do both for very long. But one thing’s certain—she’ll never be beholden to a man again. Tired of living in a small town that blames him for actions his father committed ten years ago, Mac Oakton is scheduled to leave Eagle Harbor. So why does the pretty widow at the bakery keep tugging at his heart? He can’t get involved in her predicament when he’ll only be around for two more weeks. But when Tressa’s burdens overwhelm her, they both face a decision. Can Mac set his own plans aside to help? And can Tressa accept his support if that means giving up her independence and being obligated to a man again? “A fabulous story and the start to a wonderful series.” Roseanna M. the largest ranch in Texas—and he insists she marry a wealthy city-slicker worthy of a cattle baron's daughter. There might be someone out there who'd love her for who she is instead of her money, but she's been fooled by a sweet talker before, and her family is still suffering because of it. With an old friend-turned-enemy returning to town and cattle rustlers running roughshod over the county, Sheriff Daniel Harding knows the last thing he should be thinking about is a woman... especially the one woman he'll never be able to marry. Then Charlotte Westin asks for his help, and Daniel can't refuse. Until he finds out exactly what she wants... When Charlotte comes to Daniel with a plan to find herself a husband, Daniel is forced to face his feelings for her—as well as some past mistakes of his own. But as the rustlers grow more dangerous, Charlotte's father takes drastic steps to engage her to a man she doesn't love. And Charlotte and Daniel soon find themselves caught between the burdens from their pasts and others' expectations. Will they let their past choices ruin their dreams? Or will Charlotte and Daniel embrace God's forgiveness and forge a happy future for themselves? Read about the day Elijah first falls in love with Victoria in the Eagle Harbor short story, Love's Beginning. As a ten-year-old boy, Elijah sees Gilbert Sinclair bully the other school children day in and day out. As far as Elijah figures, it's going to be a long school year if somebody doesn't show the rich kid a thing or two, so it might as well be him. If only his sister wasn't around to mess up his plans. And why does he care so much what Victoria, the pretty girl with a house fancier than Gilbert's, thinks of their fight? Love's Beginning is a 12 page short story. It can be read as a standalone or as an extension of Love's Every Whisper, which is Elijah and Victoria's full length novel.
